ADVENTURE

EDITION 11

Searching for tracks with Lily

+ fun puzzles and drawing activities, a competition and a funny adventure

Hello,
I'm Lily!

Welcome to the Jungfrau ski region.

It's great that you are visiting me and my friends in the Bernese Oberland. I'm really looking forward to taking you with me on my exciting adventures. Here in the mountains, you can ski, sledge, go for a hike or simply enjoy nature.

If you take a walk in the snow, you might find some animal tracks or have a fun snowball fight with your friends.

However, sometimes things get lost, and in the deep white snow it can be quite difficult to find them again.

I recently came across a bum bag while I was out skiing. With my detective skills and the help of my friends, I set out to search for the owner. Read my comic to find out whether I was successful.

I hope you have a wonderful winter in the Jungfrau ski region and lots of fun.

See you soon,

Lily

Chaos on the ski lift

It's a busy day on the pistes!

Hopefully all the skiers will reach the correct mountain. Can you work out who will arrive where?

Lily Comic Searching in the snow

Lily is over the moon. Finally she can race down the mountain again on her skis.

She loves flying over little jumps and exploring the pistes with her friends.

The weather is perfect...

And the snow is amazing...

YIKES!
WHAT'S THIS?

Lily's friend notices something pink on the edge of the piste. Has someone crashed? Does a skier need help? She skis across the piste and takes a look.

"It's a bum bag. Somebody must have lost it."
Lily opens the bag. Perhaps that will give her a clue as to who it belongs to.

She finds a bracelet in the bum bag.
It looks like the bag belongs to a girl called Mia.

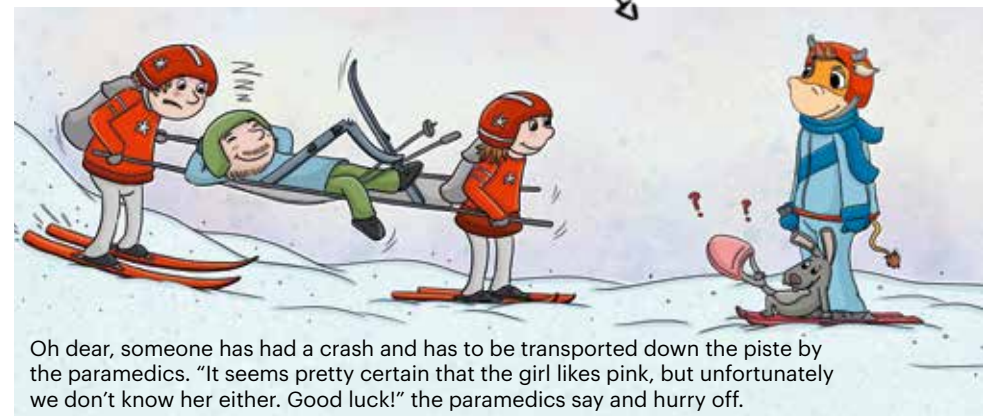

Lily and her friends ask everywhere whether someone is missing a bag.

However, no one knows anything.

They hear a loud rumbling sound behind them.
Snow-groomer driver Franz races up to them.

"It must belong to a little girl.
Unfortunately I don't know her," says Franz regretfully.

Oh dear, someone has had a crash and has to be transported down the piste by the paramedics. "It seems pretty certain that the girl likes pink, but unfortunately we don't know her either. Good luck!" the paramedics say and hurry off.

Lily has realised that it's worthwhile asking for help. After all, you can achieve a lot more in a group than on your own. They happily enjoy their time on the piste together until the last ride down.

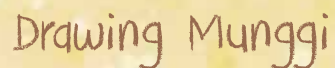

THE END

On the way, he is collecting and losing snow points.

How many does he end up with when he reaches the bottom?

It's a very long sum. Good luck...

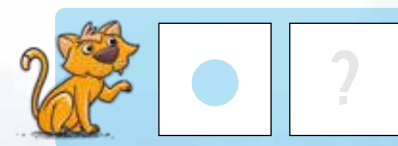

On your marks, get set, go! Draw Munggi, who is currently in hibernation, step by step until the drawing is completely finished. Have fun!

Lily is having so much fun in the snowball fight.

Each of the four friends has different-coloured snowballs. Can you count how many snowballs each friend has thrown into the air?

Who has thrown the most snowballs?

A warm fluffy scarf for Lily

Lily loves the winter, but sometimes it gets so cold outside. For that reason, she has put on a long, thick scarf. You can colour it in. The dots in each square on the scarf indicate a certain colour. Colour in the scarf according to the number of dots in each square. Have fun!

How many red squares are there on Lily's scarf?

All correct answers will be entered into a draw for the following prizes:

1ST PRIZE: 1 winter hiking and sledging day pass for 2 adults and 2 children

2ND PRIZE: Return tickets Interlaken Ost – Schynige Platte (Lily's treasure hunt) for 2 adults and 2 children

3RD PRIZE: Lily fan merchandise

Good luck!

Eagle Walti sees everything

Walti loves soaring over the winter landscape on his powerful wings. The view is fantastic from up there. He is good at distinguishing between the different colours, especially in winter. However, there is one colour he cannot see. With this one, he is colour-blind.

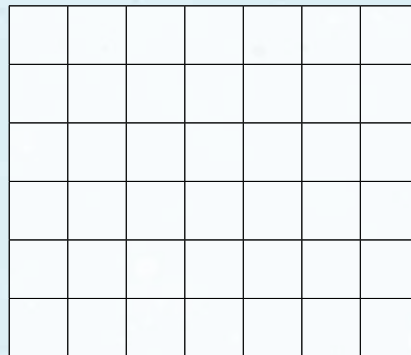

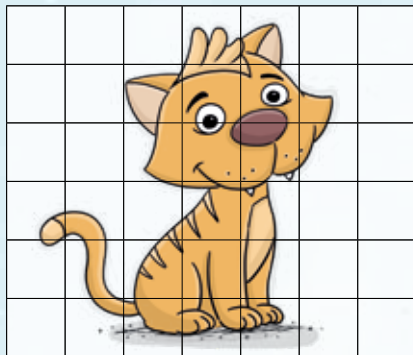

Listen to the story.

Can you find out which colour it is?

Draw Lily's cat friend

Copy each square one by one and soon you will have drawn the picture yourself with the help of the grid – easy-peasy!

Fun colouring page

Lily loves racing down the sledding routes in the Jungfrau ski region. Happy colouring!

JaMaDu
