ADVENTURE

EDITION 7

A sweet outing
TO THE EIGER GLACIER

+ fun puzzles and
drawing activities,
and a funny adventure

Hello,
I'm Lily!

Welcome to the Jungfrau ski region.

In the Bernese Oberland region, which is where I live, we don't just have lots of funny Bernese German words and magical ski slopes; we also have the highest confectionery shop in Europe.

Up there at the Eiger Glacier station in Grindelwald, the delicious and world-famous Eigerspitzli were invented 33 years ago. Eigerspitzli are really tasty chocolates made in the shape of our big mountain, the Eiger.

I love chocolate, so the friendly confectioner made a special Lily lolly just for me. Of course, I am very keen to see how these lollies are made. I'm sure that will be lots of fun.

Will you come with me and watch when I'm let loose in the "chocolate factory"? I'm sure we'll have a great time, especially when I get to munch on all that delicious chocolate. I'm looking forward to your visit.

Or as we would say: "Mier gseh is i mire Heimat."

See you soon, your

Lily

I'm looking forward to seeing you!

Nibbled Eigerspitzli

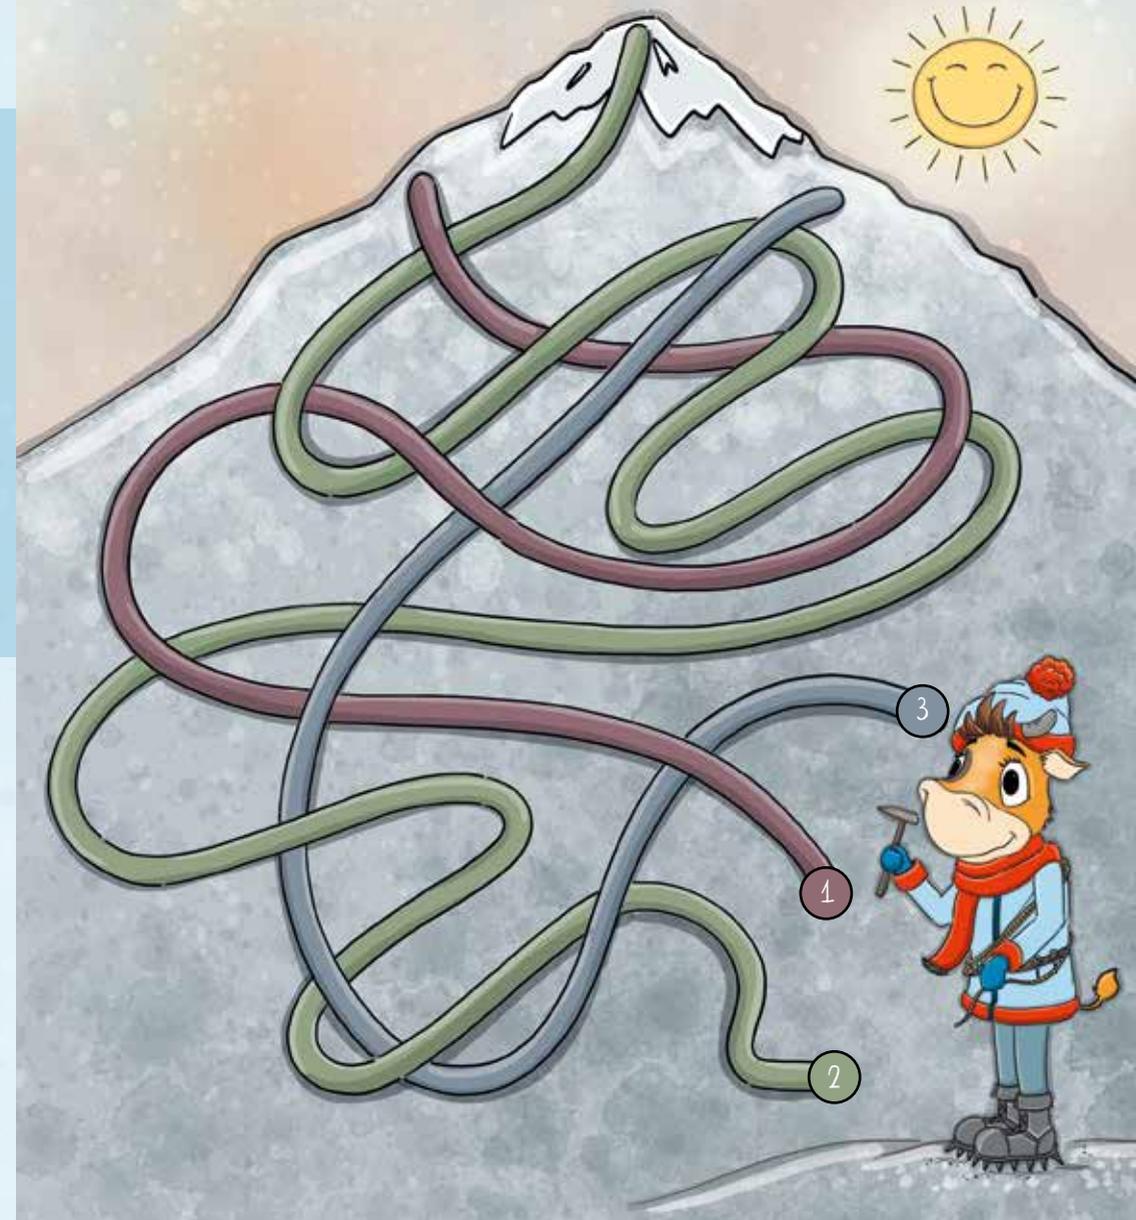

The confectionery shop on the Eiger Glacier makes many kinds of sweet treats. One of these is the "Eigerspitzli" chocolates, which are shaped like the Eiger itself.

Can you find the right shadows to match the Eigerspitzli that someone has already nibbled on? Write the letters of the right shadows in the boxes next to the colour pictures.

Lily wants to get to the top

Lily wants to climb the Eiger, but this mountain is really high. To be precise, it is 3,967 metres high. Can you find the correct route to the top for Lily? Happy climbing!

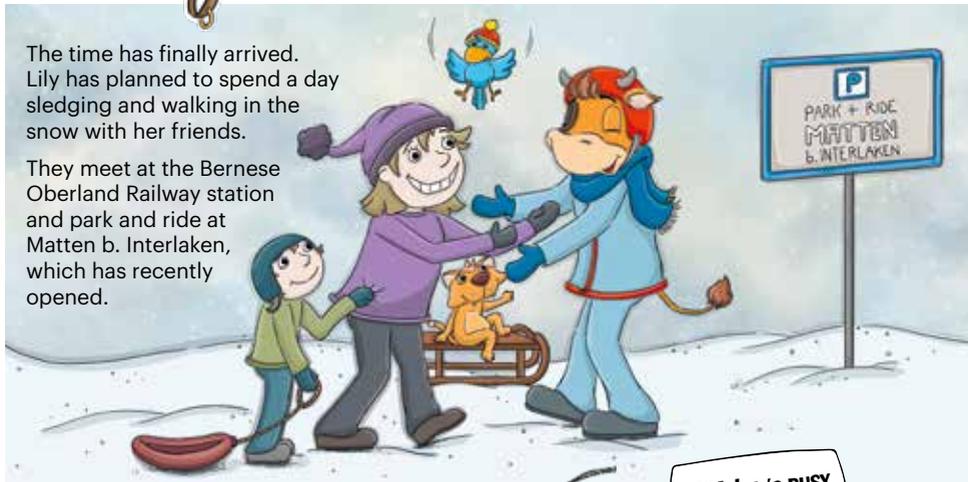

Lily COMIC

A sweet outing

The time has finally arrived. Lily has planned to spend a day sledging and walking in the snow with her friends.

They meet at the Bernese Oberland Railway station and park and ride at Matten b. Interlaken, which has recently opened.

After taking the train to the Grindelwald Terminal, the friends ride the Eiger Express up to the Eiger Glacier.

They watch the hustle and bustle on the pistes.

WOW, it's BUSY TODAY...

At the top, the friends get ready to sledge down. But then...

MMM, WHAT'S THAT DELICIOUS SMELL?

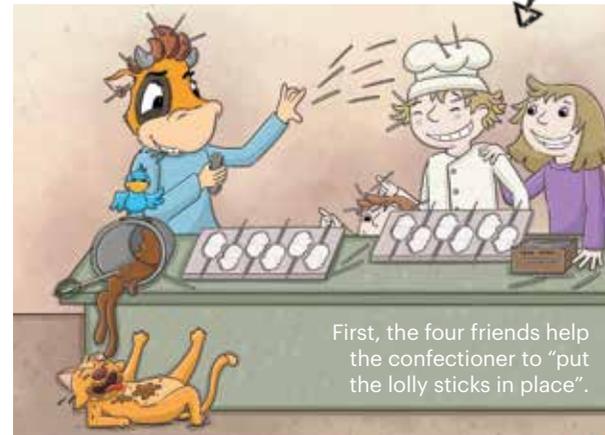

Lily and her friends follow their noses and end up in the bakery of the highest confectionery shop in Europe.

The friendly confectioner explains to them that he's making Lily lollies.

I'M IN CHOCOLATE HEAVEN!

First, the four friends help the confectioner to "put the lolly sticks in place".

Wow, WHAT A DELICIOUS SMELL!

Then they pour the face by hand with white chocolate.

Then they add the delicious milk chocolate. It's soooo tasty!

Now they leave the chocolate to dry and that's it - the Lily lolly is finished.

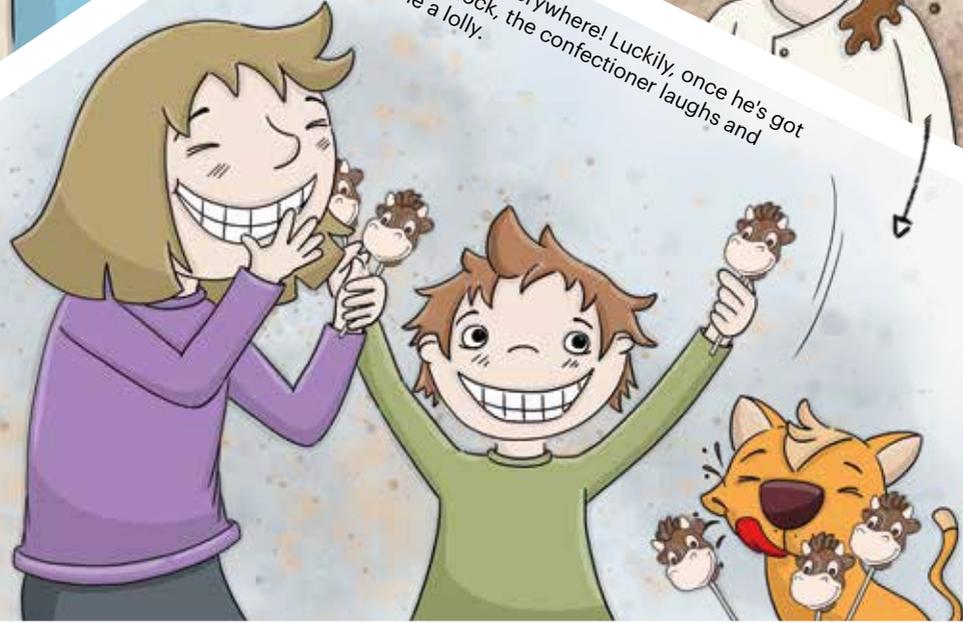

NOW IT'S MY TURN...

Lily grabs the chocolate piping bag and squeezes as hard as she can.

OOPS...

There's chocolate everywhere! Luckily, once he's got over his initial shock, the confectioner laughs and gives everyone a lolly.

After their little chocolate fight, it's time to get back on the piste. The four friends race down into the valley. Today, Lily has rented a "velogemel", which is like a cross between a bike and a sledge. Riding it is so much fun.

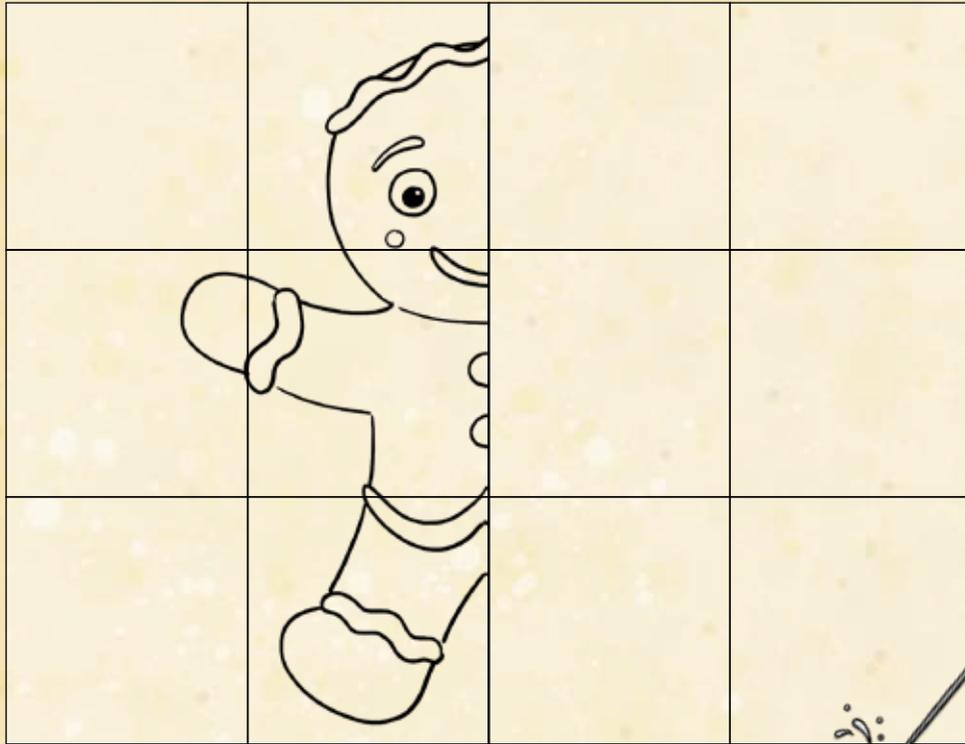

The four friends enjoy a delicious meal in the bistro at the Grindelwald Terminal and buy lots of chocolate to take home and give away as presents. Will it be enough to last until their next visit?

THE END

Yummy Christmas biscuits

Baking at Christmas time. Lily would like to bake some gingerbread men for her friends. First she draws what they should look like. Can you finish off the right-hand side and colour the drawing in? The two halves should be a mirror image of one another. Have fun!

RECIPE FOR GINGERBREAD BISCUITS

- 50g Butter, soft
- 175g Ground brown sugar
- 125g Creamed honey
- 1 Egg
- 100g Crème fraîche
- 400g White flour
- 2-3 tablespoons Ground hazelnuts
- 1 tablespoon Gingerbread seasoning
- 1 pinch Ground nutmeg
- 1 tablespoon Cocoa powder
- 1 teaspoon Bicarbonate of soda
- Milk for coating the biscuits

INSTRUCTIONS

Stir the butter. Add the brown sugar and honey and stir. Mix in the egg and the crème fraîche. Add the flour and the remaining ingredients and knead. Cover and put in a cool place for an hour. Knead the dough again on a little flour and roll it out to form a layer 5 mm thick. Then cut out the shapes, place them on a sheet of baking paper on a baking tray and bake them in the centre of the oven (preheated to 180 °C) for 8 to 10 minutes until they turn light brown. Now coat the hot gingerbread biscuits with milk and cool. You can then decorate them with an egg-white glaze if you want.

Hidden numbers

Many words have numbers hidden in them. Can you find out which numbers these words contain? Underline the number and write it in the box. This task is quite tricky, but you can do it!
